Order Granting Defendant's Unopposed Motion to Determine Confidentiality of Trial Court Records

This matter having come before the Court on Defendant's Unopposed Motion to Determine Confidentiality of Trial Court Records, and the Court having reviewed the motion and otherwise being advised of the premises, it is hereby;

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows: This is a breach of contract action wherein summary judgment was granted for the Defendant. Defendant moved for entitlement to attorneys' fees and costs based on a proposal for settlement it had served on Plaintiff. On September 26, 2017, Plaintiff stipulated to Defendant's entitlement to attorneys' fees and costs. On September 28, 2017, the Court ruled that Shutts & Bowen, LLP billing time records would be produced to Plaintiff under the confidentiality agreement between the Plaintiff and the Defendant ("the parties"). On October 30, 2017, the Court heard Defendant's Motion to Determine the Amount of its Reasonable Attorneys' Fees and Costs. At the hearing, without objection from Plaintiff, Defendant sought to introduce the confidential Shutts & Bowen, LLP's billing time records into evidence. The billing time records were marked as Exhibit B for identification.

Shutts & Bowen, LLP's billing time records consisting of 13 pages state at the bottom of each page that the document is "Confidential Not to be Disclosed". The records contain proprietary information on Shutts & Bowen, LLP's and GEICO's business agreement including the applicable billing rates and the agreed upon compensable work in this action. Shutts & Bowen, LLP and GEICO contend that this information if disclosed into the marketplace and accessible to competitors will cause immediate and significant harm to them.

The information sought to be kept confidential is contained within the 13 pages and is to be visible only to the Court, the parties, attorneys for the parties, and Defendant's expert. It should be kept confidential until such time that the Court ~~accepts Exhibit B for identification into evidence and the Court~~ issues its ruling on Defendant's Motion to Determine the Amount of Reasonable Attorneys' Fees and Costs, at which time the document will be returned to Defendant's counsel.

The degree, duration, and manner of confidentiality is no broader than necessary to protect the interests of the parties and their counsel. There is no less restrictive measure available to protect the interests of the parties and their counsel. The clerk of court is directed to publish this order on the clerk's website and in a prominent public location in the courthouse for no less than 30 days.

DONE AND ORDERED in Pasco County, Florida this 3 day of Jan.,

Honorable Judge Anne Wansboro
